All ladies who attended the Coterie, last Wednesday, spent a most pleasant afternoon. The subject, "Home," touched every heart and every lady seemed ready to give her ideas to all others.

Last week one day, Allison Johnson received by mail a dollar bill and a bill advertising the Sunday excursion on the narrow gauge. He didn't care to take the chances of a ride on the road, but could find use for the dollar, all right.

Every member of the Free Baptist church is earnestly requested to be present at the covenant meeting at two o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, as the future pastorate and other matters of great importance are to be considered.

Mr. S. Homer Eaton, elocutionist and impersonator, delighted a large audience in Music hall last Monday evening. His impersonations of Josiah Allen's wife and a modern prima-donna and recitation of the "Vision of Sir Launfal" were especially fine.—Allegan Gazette. Paw Paw people can hear him with the Morse Concert Company at the opera house this evening.

Now that the United States government has established the Indian war-house at Chicago, why wouldn't it be cheaper to send "H. S. & M." suits to the Indians than missionaries? These suits are the greatest civilizers on earth.
They would make a gentleman of even a Sioux Indian. These suits can be bought in Paw Paw only of E. Smith & Co.

The "Home Concert Band" is composed of ladies and gentlemen who sing and play a number of instruments and are, in a measure at least, typical of what every community might wish to have. They find much pleasure in their variety of combinations, both of band and orchestral instruments and songs for all voices, of which it is practicable to give only a part in one program. While contributing to the pleasure of their friends, they have more than once renewed interest in that highly commendable recreation—music for and by home folks.

In the case of S. T. Wilkinson vs.
George Irwin, an appeal from the judgment of a justice of the peace, the jury were impaneled just before the adjournment of court Friday evening.

The trial lasted all day Saturday, engaging not only the court and jury, but four able attorneys: T. J. Cavanaugh and Prosecuting Attorney Fish of Allegan for plaintiff and Messrs. Heckert & Chandler for defendant. The jury were sent out Saturday afternoon, remained out all night and did not agree until late Sunday evening. Monday morning they came into court with a verdict of $18.15 in favor of the plaintiff.

In the court below, the plaintiff recovered judgment for $30. By the time the costs are all paid, it will prove to be an expensive litigation for both parties, but then they had "satisfaction."

A curious complaint has arisen at Ann Arbor. Miss Emma E. Bower, school board treasurer elect, submitted a bond for $40,000, the sureties all being women, which was accepted. Now it is declared invalid because a number of the signers are married women. The board is badly muddled and hasn't any idea where it is at.—State Item. That is one of the state items we do not believe, but even if true the Ann Arbor trouble suggests a pickling vat for husbands until the affair blows over. In gallant Michigan that bond ought to stand good.—Sentinel. The item quoted by the Sentinel may not be true, but the statement that a married woman cannot become a valid surety on a bond is good law in this state. That is one of the old common law disabilities imposed upon femes covert that the statutes, even in "gallant Michigan," have not yet removed.

HARVEST JUBILEE.

Paw Paw's Holiday a Success in Every Way.

Early yesterday morning, an unwaited stir was noticeable in town, and by nine o'clock Main street was gay with flags and bunting. The day of the harvest festival was here. By the middle of the forenoon, a big crowd was in town. The business streets were well nigh impassable. The people all seemed to enjoy themselves hugely, and they should have done so, as plenty of sports were provided for their amusement.
The Little Prairie Ronde and Bloomingdale bands made the day lively with plenty of good music, and a large number of stands, etc., furnished plenty of refreshments for the inner man—and for his family as well.

Following is a summary of the sports, which commenced on Main street promptly at the advertised time:

Bicycle race—one-half mile—Horace McKellar 1st, H. C. Waters 2d, Guy Lamberson 3d. This event was an interesting one, but a misunderstanding as to the end of the course caused some of the riders to pause, making the finish less interesting than it otherwise would have been.

The foot race—150 yards—was sharply contested, there being five starters.
"Euge" Bennett of Hartford won 1st money, Wilbur Warner 2d, Ed. Morlan 3d.

The exhibit of driving horses was not the least interesting event. In gents' single drivers, Geo. Weston won first with Mrs. Whalen's black horse, Harrington Bros. 2d and 3d.

Mr. Weston also captured 1st in gents' double drivers, with Mrs. Whalen's black and Frank Parks' fine driver, Harrington Bros. won second in this class.

Lottie Showerman, with Black Dick and Bert Showerman's carriage horse as a team, was voted the blue ribbon for the best turnout driven by a lady.
Mrs. J. G. Sage won the red and Daisy Longwell, with Goodale's white "Patsy," the white ribbon.

Just after dinner, the fire department gave an exhibition. The fire alarm was sounded, and many people, not knowing a false alarm was to be given, hurriedly left their late dinner tables to see the conflagration. The engine was stationed at the cistern at the crossing of Main and Kalamazoo streets.
Two hose companies ran a race, one turning to the west and one to the east on Main street, unreeling the hose from their carts and coupling to the engine. In a marvelously short time, two streams of water were being thrown into the air.

The ball game followed and resulted in a score of 24 to 10 in favor of Hartford. The Paw Paw team played a ragged game and lost it fairly.

The only disappointment of the day was the failure to provide fireworks for the evening.
